HTN 180 Px Extra Strength is a complete botanical formula that provides support for maintaining a healthy blood pressure already within normal ranges*. Through its supporting actions on blood vessel relaxation and coronary flow, HTN 180 Px Extra Strength can help to optimize cardiovascular function. HTN 180 Px Extra Strength provides powerful alkaloids that have been investigated for their ability to support parasympathetic activity in the brain, which can contribute to a calming state of the mind and body.

This extra strength formula contains approximately 8x more snake root per capsule than HTN180 Px Original.

Formulation Features

- Provides cardiovascular benefits
- Wildcrafted African snake root contains alkaloids known to support normal blood vessel peripheral resistance, normal catecholamine synthesis and healthy parasympathetic nervous system tone
- Hawthorn berry contains natural flavonoids that support normal smooth muscle relaxation
- Contains vasoactive amines that support nitric oxide production

95% of our herbs and herbal extracts are certified organic or ecologically wildcrafted.
